Jo	ournal - Office of Legislative Counsel Page 4
T	hursday - 29 July 1976
R c tl	LIAISON Charles Snodgrass, ouse Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, called on behalf of epresentative J. Kenneth Robinson (R., Va.), requesting information oncerning allegations made by a nat Soviet missiles were planted on the seabed off the U.S. coast and nat Soviet nuclear devices were secreted in various U.S. ports.
	fter checking with OCI, I informed Snodgrass that the allegations were ntrue.
I S	HEARING Sat in on the hearing held y the Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on avestigations examining the Federal narcotics enforcement effort. enator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.) was Chairman and Senators Charles Percy R., Ill.) and William Brock (R., Tenn.) were in attendance part of the time. Vance Ambrose, former Commissioner of Customs and
T.	White House adviser on narcotics, and John Ingersoll, former head
t t c	f the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, were present. The estimonies principally concerned the jurisdictional problems faced by he law enforcement agencies. I gave to DDO, copies of statements of all witnesses to date and a Committee report on the subject. I referred Fletcher Adkinson, staff member, to two classified
t t c	f the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, were present. The estimonies principally concerned the jurisdictional problems faced by the law enforcement agencies. I gave to DDO, copies of statements of all witnesses to date and a Committee report on the subject. I referred Fletcher Adkinson, staff member, to two classified GAO reports on the subject which felt would assist
t t c s	f the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, were present. The estimonies principally concerned the jurisdictional problems faced by he law enforcement agencies. I gave to DDO, copies of statements of all witnesses to date and a Committee report on the subject. I referred Fletcher Adkinson, staff member, to two classified f the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, were present. The estimonies principally concerned the jurisdictional problems faced by he law enforcement agencies. I gave to DDO, copies of statements of all witnesses to date and a Committee report on the subject. I referred Fletcher Adkinson, staff member, to two classified GAO reports on the subject which felt would assist adkinson in his inquiry. BRIEFING Sat in on a briefing on Soviet civil defense given to Larry Smith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, by OSR. See